Presidents Message

Dear Members:

My gratitude is extended to you and fellow Board Members for having appointed me as your President for the fiscal year 2008 - 2009. I have always recognized the Presidency as a position of honour leading a proud group of professionals and businessmen whose combined goodwill and stature within the community has emerged into a formidable and influential Italo-Canadian organization.

My objective is to continue the good road we have taken under the leadership of our past Presidents, by ensuring growth in membership, successful presentation of our regular events, fulfilment of our scholarship and general donation commitments and delivery of a comfortable, enjoyable and informative monthly general membership gathering in furtherance of our friendship and business pursuits.

It goes without saying that no one person can account for the success of an organization. That depends on a combined effort. Not only my fellow Board Members, who have already shown their commitment, but also each one of you. I challenge and invite to participate in our various committees (i.e. gala, scholarship, golf, newsletter, guest speaker National Federation). Besides a little bit of work, there is a great deal of fun and tremendous satisfaction. See me or any Board Member and join us. It is not only incumbent upon me as your President and the Board but also you to contribute your aptitude, enthusiasm and resourcefulness. The resourcefulness of an individual can yield amazing results. I am reminded of a story where one's resourcefulness proved beneficial:

"A rabbi and two friends, one a Protestant minister, and the other a Catholic priest, played poker for small stakes one night a week. Nothing wrong with that except they lived in a small blue-law town. The sheriff raided their game and brought all three before a justice of the peace, who after listening to the sheriff's story, sternly asked the priest: "Were you gambling, Father?"

The priest looked heavenward, whispered, "Oh Lord, forgive me," then said aloud to the JP: "No, your Honour, I was not gambling." "Were you gambling, Reverend?" the JP asked the Protestant minister, who, like the priest, also looked upward and whispered for forgiveness before he answered the JP: "No, your Honour, I was not gambling." The JP addressed the third clergyman: "Were you gambling, Rabbi?" Looking the JP squarely in the eye, the rabbi shrugged and replied: "With whom?"

One more important note. Congratulations to Frank Mocerri, elected President of our National Federation as well as Dan Castellan elected Vice-President of Finance. Wow, they have, "done us proud" and have raised the bar on Windsor's influence and profile. Well Done!

John Paul Corrent - President
