Canadians of Italian Heritage Building Business & Professional Networks Across Canada

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

700 Italians Interned in camps throughout Canada? 30,000 Canadian Italians, including women and children, named as enemy aliens? Kidding right?

If you have not had a chance to see the 30 minute documentary "Piazza Petawawa" and you have not heard of one of the best kept secrets from the 40's, then you should. This Italian Documentary was shown at the CIBPA Centre by the Windsor Community Museum and the Windsor Italian Heritage Committee.

You could hear a pin drop as the video flashes names of our forefathers that were interned and listen to stories from sons, daughters, grandchildren and relatives. It is very touching and heartfelt on how a great nation treated a great nationality, Italians and Canadian Italians.

Very little has been done to make right this stolen time from our loved ones.

Forget it and move on, or push forward and make it known and make it right. I personally believe in the latter, as we Italians have played a major role in sculpting this beautiful country and are respected for our accomplishments. Although it was a decision in political haste without any litigation, we should put up a political barricade that discourages the future leaders of our beautiful country Canada, from following suit.

Please acknowledge, communicate and educate. Learning from history is what will ensure our future is solidified into one of respect, culture and unification.

Fai del bene e scordati, fai del male e pensacci

Do good and forget about it! Do evil and remember!

Claudio Silvaggi, President

DOCUMENTARY MARKETING WINDSOR

Dr. Alfie Morgan contacted CIBPA on behalf of the City of Windsor. The Windsor Chamber of Commerce and the New Canadian Centre for Excellence are producing a video to be distributed to Canadian embassies and consulates throughout the world to attract immigrant investors to Windsor instead of Toronto or Vancouver. The video would feature Windsor's successful immigrant entrepreneurs – showing that we have a great place in which to do business. It is being produced by Kim Kristy (formerly with CBC Television).

If any one of our members happens to know immigrants who did well as entrepreneurs in Windsor (native anywhere in the world, i.e. Europe, Middle East, India, Africa, South-West Asia, China etc.) please provide John P. Corrent with contact information. Arrangements will be made for Kim Kristy to contact and meet with the entrepreneur.

Your prompt response would be greatly appreciated.
