PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BUON NATALE!!!!

I can't believe Christmas is already upon us!! When Christmas time comes around, I am all about tradition (with a twist). We do not eat any meat on La Vigilia di Natale. We always start with my favourite, Antipasto di Mare then comes the Zuppa di Pesca. My sister's Commare Maria always makes her special Baccala and we always make way too much food. After dinner, we play cards and other games. Around 11:00, Santa (aka Ferruccio) pops in for a visit and brings gifts. We toast and eat Panetone at midnight and then open all the gifts. I am sure your Christmas traditions are similar but I'm sure you all have something different you do. Share your Christmas traditions with us. Sharing them and believing in them is the only way we can keep them going.

We have exciting things planned for CIBPA in December, things that I am very proud of. The first is our December meeting at St. Angela. The meeting is always a special one and I strongly encourage you to invite guests and potential new members to this event.

Then comes out Children's Christmas Party on December 13th. Niva Segatto and Linda De Luca have been working very hard to make this a special event.

The last event of December is one that I am so happy we do, and that is the Turkey Giveaway on December 19th. Volunteering at the event last year was the most rewarding volunteer experience I've ever had. If you are able to help out, financially or volunteering, please come see me or one of the Board members.

Then on December 21th, I'm helping Tecumseh Soccer organize a 24 soccer tournament marathon!!! It is called the "Reindeer Games" If you are interested in helping out in any way (time/food/sponsor), please email me. I think it is going to a really special soccer event.

I look forward to seeing you all next week. ONE CIBPA!!!!

If you have any questions, concerns or comments, feel free to call me at 519-944-6993 or email me at fdasacco@bdo.ca
