PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

November brings a very special day for Italians, All Saints Day. All Saints Day is celebrated on November 1st, it is a National holiday as well as my birthday. The next day, November 2nd, is another special day on the Roman Catholic calendar, All Souls Day. A special day for us to remember and pray for you loved ones that have passed on.

For us here at CIBPA Windsor, November plans to be a very exciting month. Our November meeting will be our Scholarship meeting. We are really looking forward to seeing the young bright future of our Italian community. We follow that meeting with an exciting Poker Night on November 6th and then start our preparations for our December events (General Assembly, Children’s Christmas party and Turkey Give-Away).

At our last meeting, we had our Federal Election debate. I want to give a Special Thanks to Remo Di Paolo for doing a great job organizing the event as well as John Fairly for being our guest moderator.

I look forward to see you all next week!!! One CIBPA!!!!

I challenge you again to bring a guest. Have them see what we do for our youth. It is a great night and should be celebrated.

If you have any questions, concerns or comments, feel free to call me at 519-944-6993 or email me at fdasacco@bdo.ca

CIBPA SCHOLARSHIPS

It is with great honour and acknowledgement that I congratulate our scholarship recipients this year. As CIBPA members this meeting marks a special moment when we can embrace and recognize our future Italian leaders. This year's winners were selected based on a variety of criteria including academic achievement, letters of reference and community involvement. With exceptional candidates the selection process was truly a difficult task. This however, shows the promise of a bright future and vibrant Italian community with these individuals leading the way.

At this time I would like to acknowledge the following 2014-2015 CIBPA Scholarship recipients:

“THE POPE, THE SYNOD AND THE RESPONSE OF MERCY”

The October 2015 Synod on the Family is an integral event and process in the pastoral vision of Pope Francis. The Bishop of Rome has revived the 50 year old institution of the Synod of Bishops with his new style, dynamism and insistence on open dialogue among the shepherds of the Church. What does the Synod mean for the Church? How is it an instrument and agent of reform? How does it lead the whole Church into the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy?
