PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

The 2011 Year is fast dwindling down to its last few days which is a reminder that we are once again approaching the most festive time of the year. This is the time that each and every one of us should be celebrating with the true spirit of Christmas. A time that we show and share our love with our family and friends. However it goes beyond that, this is a time of giving and sharing and by doing so we are rewarded by receiving endless joy and personal satisfaction.

I am honoured and proud to report that we have had the most successful year in the history of CIBPA in giving and sharing.

We have made it possible for the University of Windsor to receive $220,000.00 through the CIBPA Windsor Scholarship Fund, CIBPA Dr. Sergio Marchionne Scholarship Fund and the University of Windsor Italian Studies Legacy Fund.

We will continue our commitment of $25,000.00 for the Windsor Regional Hospital.

We have recognized eight students with scholarships to assist them in furthering their education.

We are working with Windsor Regional Hospital in raising $200,000.00 with Al Pacino to support their Mental Health Centre.

With approval we will once again provide much needed food to the less fortunate in our community.

CIBPA is truly promoting and supporting our Cultural, Educational and Charitable Endeavors of the Canadian Italian Business and Professionals of the Community of Windsor and Essex County.

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors, we wish that the peace, love and joy of Christmas be with each and every one of you, your families and friends and that you may have a safe, healthy, happy and prosperous New Year.

Carl Grossi, President

GUEST SPEAKER

Andrew G. Arena

Mr. Andrew obtained a Bachelor of Science in June 1985 from Central Michigan University and also studied in England at Cambridge University. In May, 1988, he received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Detroit, School of Law.

Mr. Arena entered on duty with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in June 1988. His first office of assignment was the Albany Division, Syracuse Resident Agency, where he worked general criminal and organized crime matters. In July 1993, he was transferred to the Los Angeles Division and was assigned as Team Leader of a Violent Street Gang Task Force.

In July 1995, Mr. Arena was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent and assigned to the Organized Crime Section at FBI Headquarters. In 1997, he was appointed Supervisor of the Violent Crimes and Major Offenders Squad in the Cleveland Division. This squad investigated matters such as bank robberies, armored car robberies, and fugitives. He was then promoted to Supervisory Senior Resident Agent of the Youngstown Resident Agency in the Cleveland Division. Investigations in Youngstown focused on the systemic public corruption and organized crime that had long plagued the area.

Mr. Arena was designated Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) of the Detroit Division by then Director Louis J. Freeh on March 22, 2001.

As ASAC Detroit, he oversaw the Counterterrorism and Counterintelligence Programs.

Following the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, Mr. Arena was promoted to Chief of the International Terrorism Operations Section at FBI Headquarters. The following year, he was appointed Special Assistant to the Executive Assistant Director for Counterterrorism and Counterintelligence, and assigned to the Director's Office.

On February 24, 2004, Director Robert Mueller III promoted Mr. Arena to the position of Special Agent in Charge (SAC), New York Field Office. SAC Arena was in charge of all criminal investigations in the New York office.

On March 1, 2007, Mr. Arena assumed the position of SAC for the Detroit Division.
