Canadians of Italian Heritage Building Business & Professional Networks Across Canada

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

The year has begun with a running start. CIBPA Windsor hosted the National Federation Annual General Meeting with great success. CIBPA Windsor opened the doors to showcase our new home and welcomed other CIBPA Chapters across Canada. We made a lasting impression with our building displaying their respective logos and have become the envy of all other CIBPA Chapters. We are the first and only Chapter that owns a building and has become the Official Head Office of the National Federation.

CIBPA Windsor escorted the National Federation to participate, witness and congratulate our fellow Italians at the Fogolar Furlan Club for breaking a New Guinness World Record for the largest polenta ever made. Following a wine tour on the Shores of Lake Erie we attended our Roman Festival at the Ciociaro Club. Ermanna Felice chair of the Roman Festival along with the entire committee did a fantastic job in providing an enjoyable evening for one of our best CIBPA functions. We like to thank all sponsors and volunteers for their contributions and participation. If you did not attend this event you missed out!

The Board of Directors are diligently working on all other future functions.

You will have the pleasure of seeing in action our manager and chef of the CIBPA Center at our next General Assembly Meeting.

We expect to see all of you Home on Tuesday October 4, 2011.

Carl Grossi, President

GUEST SPEAKER

We like to thank last months guest speaker Dr. John A. Strasser, President St. Clair College.

This month there will be no guest speaker. The board felt that a meeting be devoted to an open form of presentations and questions. The budget will be presented for CIBPA general, Charitable Endeavours and the CIBPA Center.

John Bonato, Chair Guest Speaker

National Federation of Canadian Italian Business and Professional Association

Known as the (CIBPA). The three day Annual General Meeting (AGM) conference was a huge success. We commenced our meeting the Friday at 11:30 at the new CIBPA National Federation head office on Erie St. also known as CIBPA Windsor Centre. Delegates came from Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Thunder Bay, Sault St. Marie, Sudbury, and Windsor (not present Winnipeg, Hamilton) who all walked in the Centre to see their Chapter logo on the wall which set the tone to a very successful meeting, finishing at 5 pm.

The Saturday meeting continued till 11:30 with election of the new

Executive Board

President: Bob Sacco (Toronto)

Exec. VP: Tony Miele (Niagara)

VP Finance: Dan Castellan (Windsor)

VP Communication: Carl Grossi (Windsor)

V/P Administration: Jason Sordi (Toronto)

Ex -Officio: Frank Mocerì (Windsor)

After the meeting the tour started with a trip to the Polenta Fest who now have the new World Record of the largest polenta at the Fogolar Furlan Club and then for Wine Tasting at View Point Winery in Colchester. Finishing our day and night at the Roman Festival at Ciociaro Club which they wore toga's and were utterly fascinated with the festivities. Sunday the delegates all started their journey to their home Cities.

The delegates were so taken by the hospitality and VIP treatment that CIBPA Windsor gave; they rate Windsor and Roman Festival as one of the best AGM's. CIBPA Windsor Chapter can hold their head up high with their accomplishments this weekend.

I would like to thank CIBPA Windsor for their support of The National Federation Board for the last 18 years and being their President for the last 3 year term. Take note CIBPA Windsor Chapter should be proud that we have had four Past Presidents and proud of Windsor's accomplishments with Mr. Ralph Meo, Mr. Pat Duronio and Mr. Claudio Martini.

I would like to give special thanks to Dan Castellan as my Vice President and to Niva Segatto as my Executive Assistant. I could have not done this without them.

Another special thanks to Ermanna Filice and her committee for the successful Roman Festival and to President Carl Grossi and the Board for their help in bringing the National Federation Head Office to Windsor.

Thank you CIBPA Windsor for your support and I will continue to do my best to support our Chapter.
